

Cycling Through the 12th Century Temples of The King Jayavarman VII

Cambodia ■ Siem Reap

Type: Encounter

Tour Overview

Spend a fun day exploring the stunning Angkor scenery and the 12th century temples of the great King Jayavarman VII by bike.

Enclosed by a wall and wide moats, the atmospheric city of Angkor Thom includes many of Angkor's most popular sights. On two wheels we will enter by the monumental South Gate along a wild path passing the hidden temple of Prasat Chrung. At the mysterious Bayon Temple we can photograph the giant smiling stone faces. We will get to witness the haunting beauty of Ta Phrom - left to the clutches of the jungle, bound by the roots of massive trees.

We will visit Preah Khan, another temple built by King Jayavarman VII, and stop for a picnic in the jungle by Ta Nei Temple.

To end a perfect day, we will relax while watching the sunset over the 10th century Srah Srang, a royal bathing pool.

Highlights

- Explore the 12th century temples of King Jayavaraman VII by bike.
- Witness the jungle-bound Ta Phrom and the giant smiling faces of Bayon.
- Watch the sunset over an ancient royal bathing pool.

Duration

- 08h00 – 18h30

Notes or FAQ's

- Operate daily.
- Booking on request.
- Capacity is 1- 10 persons per group for best experience.
- During rainy season (May – October) can be muddy.
- Cycling distance is approximately 37 kilometres.
- Cycling level is medium. Helmets provided.
- Suggested minimum age is 14 years.

